29 In the present case, both are Saiva institutions situated in the same taluk and near each other as nearness goes in Malnad and besides a long connection has been established between the Khandya temple being in receipt of an annual ground of Rs 150 from the Khalasa temples. The Khandya temple is said to be one of the most distinguished in the Malnad and of special reverence. A fair case for help

(2) repairing the compound wall;

(3) repairing the leaky portion of the Janardhana Swamy temple, and

(4) renovating the Ashtabandhana of the Moolavigraha of Markandeyaswara swamy .

3. These works are reported to be absolutely necessary. Four estimates aggregating to Rs. 3504/- for the above works are herewith submitted as called for in the Muzrai Secretary's letter No. 2629 dated 26th November 1909, copy of which is herewith enclosed for ready ready reference.

4. The amount at the credit of the institution is only Rs 40/- and out of this amount several recurring charges have to be met, and therefore no funds are available to meet the cost of the proposed works.

5. Under these circumstances, I would recommend that in consideration of the Puranic importance of the temple and its antiquarian interest the estimate amount, Viz. 3554/-, may be ordered to be met out of the funds at the credit of the Sri Kalaseswaraswamy temple at Kalasa in the Mudigere Taluk.

The vernacular records relating to the subject are herewith submitted for reference.

Sir,

During my inspection of the Muzrai institutions at Khandya on the 14th of December 1905, I observed that the Markandeswara temple at the place had no kitchen of its own and the temple servants represented that it was a real necessity. It was also brought to notice that the Mula vigrana required Astabandhana. The Compound wall was found to be in a dilapidated condition. I am to request that you will be good enough to submit separate estimates for the above items of work and also to point out the source from which the cost has to be met.

(2). The Janardhaneswamy temple which is to the North of the Markandeswara temple was very damp. There was no ventilation in the temple. The whole building including the Garbagudi was said to be leaky. I am to request that you will be so good as to submit an estimate for this also to prevent leakage and to suggest the funds from which the cost may be met.

Sir

Adverting to your letter No.272/muz 215-06 dated 27th July 1915 requesting information as to whether the Markandesvaraswami temple at Kandya, Chikamagalur Taluk, has any devotees who are in a position to contribute towards the cost of repairs of the said temple, I have the honor to state that Kandya is a small village and it is ascertained that there are some devotees at Sringeri, Koppa and other places who are not, however, in a position to contribute any amount for the work in question.

2. In consideration of the Puranic importance of the place and the antiquarian interest of the temple, it is very necessary that it should be maintained in good condition, as already recommended in this office letter No.453 - dated 25-5-1910. The work may be entrusted to the D.P.W.

3. The file of vernacular papers ending with -- Chikamagalur Amildar's Ittila No.1010/H.O.C.136 dated 30th October 1916, is herewith enclosed for perusal.
